Who passes or fails The Crucible test? Expert-Verified Answer. In "The Crucible" John Proctor passed the test when he had the choice of confessing to the witchcraft trials or not to confess and die. At the end he accepted confessing because as he said, he rather die in honor than live in shame.

What are some questions about The Crucible act 1?

What are the key points of The Crucible Act 1? In the first act of The Crucible, the paranoia becomes exceedingly obvious as infant death is immediately assumed to be Devil's work (since Goody Putnam is a God-fearing woman), and the suspicion immediately turns to people in the town instead of people, as Goody Nurse does, looking for personal issues instead of ...

What does John learn about Elizabeth? At the end of the play, Elizabeth has used her time in jail to contemplate the way she's lived her life, and she confesses to John that she did keep a cold home. She is one of just a handful of characters who seem to have grown from the experience of what happened in Salem.

How hard is The Crucible? The Crucible consists of 54 hours of intense, physically demanding training, under conditions of sleep and food deprivation. During this time, recruits will be forged in the furnace of shared hardship and tough training that is the time-tried and battle-proven trademark of Marine recruit training.

Is it possible to fail The Crucible? Most recruits will make it through the Crucible, although you may get "dropped" if you're injured or unable to continue for some reason.

What is the most feared place in Salem?

What is the most important conflict in The Crucible act 1? Abigail Williams and John Proctor once had an affair. John has told her that it's over, and she doesn't believe him. At the beginning of the play, the two engage in banter, but when she begins to be suggestive, Proctor stops her. This begins the conflict between the two, which has a significant effect on the plot.

What is John Proctor afraid of in Act 1? However, he was having the affair with Abigail, which in his eyes, meant that he was damaging his relationship with God and his wife, Elizabeth. He is fearful of admitting his transgression to the community because he knows it would take away his good reputation.

Why does Abigail slap Betty? At first, she calls out for her mother, who is dead, but soon she begins to accuse Abigail of drinking blood. Abigail warns her not to speak of that, but Betty repeats her claim, this time charging Abigail with drinking blood in order to kill John Proctor's wife. With this, Abigail slaps Betty across the face.

How does crucible act 1 end? Abigail then says she saw Goody Howe, Bridget Bishop, and Goody Osburn with the devil. Then Betty begins to chant, naming others. Hale is excited to have discovered the identity of the witches, and Putnam wants to call for the marshal. As Act 1 ends, Hale agrees and says, "Let the marshal bring irons."

Who is the most important character in The Crucible Act 1? John Proctor is the protagonist and Abigail Williams is the antagonist in "The Crucible." They are the most important characters. Other important characters include Elizabeth Proctor, Reverend Parris, Reverend Hale, Rebecca Nurse, Ann Putnam, and Betty Parris.
