Board of Review: A Comprehensive Guide for Boy Scouts

What is a Board of Review for Scouts (BOR)?

A Board of Review (BOR) is a formal meeting held to evaluate the progress and achievements of a Boy Scout. It typically occurs before the Scout advances to a higher rank.

Who Can Sit on a Boy Scout Board of Review?

BORs are typically conducted by a council of three individuals:

- A Scoutmaster or Assistant Scoutmaster
- A registered Leader of the Boy Scout
- A member of the community knowledgeable about Scouting

Purpose of a Board of Review

- To evaluate the Scout's leadership, citizenship, and character development
- To determine the Scout's eligibility for advancement to the next rank
- To provide guidance and support for the Scout's continued growth

Conducting a Boy Scout Board of Review

1. Prepare: Review the Scout's advancement record and collect any relevant materials.
2. Open the Meeting: Begin with the Pledge of Allegiance and Scout Oath.

3. Scout's Presentation: Have the Scout present their achievements, skills, and growth.
4. Question and Answer: Ask questions related to the Scout's character, leadership, and citizenship.
5. Evaluation: The board members discuss the Scout's performance and make a recommendation for advancement.
6. Closing: End the meeting with the Scout Law and a closing statement.

Questions to Ask for the Scout Board of Review

- Describe a time you demonstrated leadership or citizenship.
- How have you applied the Scout Oath and Law in your daily life?
- What are your goals for your Scouting experience?
- What can you do to improve your Scouting performance?

Best Scout Rank

The highest rank in Boy Scouts is Eagle Scout, which is awarded to Scouts who have demonstrated exceptional leadership, character, and service.

Scout Evaluation

A Scout evaluation is a written report that summarizes the BOR findings. It includes a recommendation for advancement and areas for improvement.

Writing a Scout Report

- Use specific examples to highlight the Scout's strengths and areas for growth.
- Be objective and professional in your assessment.
- Provide constructive criticism and suggestions for improvement.

Code of Conduct for Scout Leaders

Scout leaders are expected to:

- Be role models for Scouts

- Maintain confidentiality
- Respect all youth members
- Foster a safe and positive environment

Showing Leadership in Scouts

- Take initiative and set goals
- Empower and inspire others
- Communicate effectively
- Be a positive example
- Be willing to accept responsibility
