Schedule 1 I Project Description Under IFAD

Q1: What is Schedule 1 I Project Description under IFAD?

A: Schedule 1 I Project Description (PID) is a comprehensive document that outlines the objectives, activities, and intended outcomes of a project funded by the International Fund for Agricultural Development (IFAD). It provides a clear roadmap for project implementation and serves as a reference point for monitoring and evaluation.

Q2: What are the key elements of a Schedule 1 I PID?

A: A Schedule 1 I PID typically includes:

- Project title and objectives
- Background and justification
- Baseline situation and target population
- Project activities and implementation schedule
- Expected outcomes and impact
- Sustainability and replicability strategies
- Budget and financing plan
- Monitoring and evaluation framework

Q3: Who prepares the Schedule 1 I PID?

A: The project executing agency is responsible for preparing the Schedule 1 I PID in collaboration with IFAD staff. However, it is essential that the project design involves consultation with stakeholders, including project beneficiaries, to ensure that their needs and priorities are adequately addressed.

Q4: What is the review process for the Schedule 1 I PID?

A: The Schedule 1 I PID undergoes a rigorous review process by IFAD's Independent Office of Evaluation (IOE) and the Management Board. The IOE assesses the technical soundness, feasibility, and sustainability of the project, while the Management Board approves the project's funding and provides guidance on implementation.

Q5: What is the significance of the Schedule 1 I PID?

A: The Schedule 1 I PID serves multiple purposes, including:

- Defining the scope and objectives of the project
- Guiding project implementation and decision-making
- Establishing a baseline for monitoring and evaluation
- Facilitating communication with stakeholders
- Ensuring that the project aligns with IFAD's strategic priorities and policies

What is the deeper meaning of 3 little pigs? The theme of “The Three Little Pigs” is “taking your time to do something right pays off.” At the beginning of the story, each pig built a house. The first two pigs didn't spend much time making their houses, but the third pig carried heavy bricks and carefully stacked them into a solid house.

What are open-ended questions for The Three Little Pigs? Posing open-ended questions that encourage children to synthesize the ideas in the book and theorize on possible outcomes facilitates discussions. For example: -How might you have built your house if you were one of the pigs and you wanted to protect yourself against the wolf? -Why would you build it that way?

What is the moral of the story three little pigs? The moral lesson learned from "The Three Little Pigs" is that hard work and dedication pay off. While the first two pigs quickly built homes and had more free time to play, the third pig labored in the construction of his house of bricks.

What is the main problem in The Three Little Pigs? Let's look at our Story Elements chart to see what the problem in the story was in The Three Little Pigs. It says the problem was that the wolf wanted to eat the pigs.

What is The Three Little Pigs a metaphor for? This story compares the first two houses being destroyed by the wolf and the last one staying intact except for the grand finale of the little pig inside. This can be seen as a metaphor for the vulnerability of the lower income classes to external danger.

What is the central message of The Three Little Pigs? The moral of Three Little Pigs is that patience and hard effort pay off in the end. The first two pigs were slackers who refused to put forth any effort. As a result, they constructed their dwellings quickly and spent their time experimenting.

What is the conclusion of the 3 Little pigs? He tried to enter through the chimney but the third little pig boiled a big pot of water and kept it below the chimney. The wolf fell into it and died. The two little pigs now felt sorry for having been so lazy. They too built their houses with bricks and lived happily ever after.

How do you summarize The Three Little Pigs? "The Three Little Pigs" is a fable about three pigs who build their houses of different materials. A Big Bad Wolf blows down the first two pigs' houses which are made of straw and sticks respectively, but is unable to destroy the third pig's house that is made of bricks.
