Accounting Standards for Nonprofits

Nonprofit organizations face unique financial reporting challenges that require specialized accounting standards. These standards ensure transparency, accountability, and consistency in the reporting of financial information.

Accounting Organization for Philippine GAAP

The Financial Reporting Standards Council (FRSC) is the organization responsible for promulgating and improving accounting standards in the Philippines. These standards form the generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP) used by Philippine businesses, including nonprofits.

ASC for Nonprofit Accounting

The Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) Topic 958, "Not-for-Profit Entities," provides comprehensive accounting guidance for nonprofit organizations in the United States. It covers topics such as recognition, measurement, presentation, and disclosure of financial information.

Accounting Standard 37

International Financial Reporting Standard (IFRS) 37, "Provisions, Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets," provides guidance on the accounting treatment of provisions, contingent liabilities, and contingent assets. It applies to all entities, including nonprofits.

Organization Responsible for IFRS

The International Accounting Standards Board (IASB) is the organization responsible for developing and maintaining the IFRS.

Entity Responsible for Regulating Accounting

The Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) is the entity responsible for regulating accounting practices in the United States.

Development of IFRS

The IASB develops the IFRS through a rigorous process that involves research, consultation, and public comment.

Accounting Standard for Charity

The FASB Accounting Standards Update (ASU) No. 2016-14, "Not-for-Profit Entities - Presentation of Financial Statements of Not-for-Profit Entities," provides specific guidance on the accounting and presentation of financial statements for charities.

Format for Nonprofit Accounting

The Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 117, "Financial Statements of Not-for-Profit Organizations," establishes the format and content of financial statements for nonprofits.

IFRS for NPOs

Nonprofit organizations can use IFRS, but they may need to make some modifications to conform to specific GAAP requirements in their jurisdiction.

FASB Application to Nonprofits

The FASB Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) Topics 954-964 apply to all not-for-profit entities, including charities and other types of nonprofits.
