Starting and Structuring a Problem-Solution Essay

How to Start a Problem-Solution Essay

1. Hook: Grab the reader's attention with a compelling fact, statistic, or anecdote.
2. Thesis Statement: Clearly state the problem and the proposed solution.
3. Introduction: Provide background information and context about the problem.

Organization of the Problem-Solution Essay

Two Main Structure Options:

- Problem-Reason-Solution (PRS):
 - Paragraph 1: Describe the problem
 - Paragraph 2: Discuss the causes or reasons for the problem
 - Paragraph 3: Propose and support the solution
- Problem-Solution-Evaluation (PSE):
 - Paragraph 1: Describe the problem and propose the solution
 - Paragraph 2: Provide details and evidence supporting the solution
 - Paragraph 3: Evaluate the effectiveness of the proposed solution and address any potential counterarguments

Length of a Problem-Solution Essay

The length of the essay will vary depending on the complexity of the topic. However, it should typically be 4-6 paragraphs long.

Writing a Good Solution

1. Identify the root cause: Address the underlying reasons for the problem.
2. Propose a feasible solution: Offer a practical and realistic approach that is supported by evidence.
3. Consider multiple perspectives: Acknowledge different viewpoints and address potential objections.
4. Evaluate the solution's benefits and drawbacks: Weigh the pros and cons of the proposed solution.
