What did Vietminh declare as its main goal in 1941? The Viet Minh recruited Vietnamese citizens with a broad range of beliefs. The group consisted of socialists, communists, nationalists, and democrats. Their overarching goal was to assimilate the people in a purely nationalist cause to win independence from France.

What did the Vietminh fight for? Viet Minh, organization that led the struggle for Vietnamese independence from French rule. The Viet Minh was formed in China in May 1941 by Ho Chi Minh. Although led primarily by communists, the Viet Minh operated as a national front organization open to persons of various political persuasions.

What was Vietnam's main goal? At the heart of the conflict was the desire of North Vietnam, which had defeated the French colonial administration of Vietnam in 1954, to unify the entire country under a single communist regime modeled after those of the Soviet Union and China.

How did the Viet Minh defeat the French in 1954? In March, the Viet Minh began a massive artillery bombardment of the French defenses. The strategic positioning of their artillery made it nearly impervious to French counter-battery fire. Tenacious fighting on the ground ensued, reminiscent of the trench warfare of World War I.

Why did the US get involved in Vietnam? For the U.S., the mandate was clear: limit Soviet power in Southeast Asia and halt the spread of communism. The first American death was in 1945. Direct U.S. involvement in Vietnam grew following surrender of the French and partition of North and South Vietnam in 1954.

What was the effect of the Gulf of Tonkin resolution? Congress supported the resolution with the assumption that the president would return and seek their support before engaging in additional escalations of the war. The Gulf of Tonkin incident and the subsequent Gulf of Tonkin resolution provided the justification for further U.S. escalation of the conflict in Vietnam.

Why did America refuse to help Ho Chi Minh? Although the U.S. opposed Ho because he was a Communist, the leader once explained, "It was patriotism, not Communism, that inspired me." His loyal supporters waged a guerrilla war against the United States, finally causing the super power to withdraw from the peninsula.

Japanese troops had taken control of Vietnam in 1945. The day Japan surrendered to the Allies, Ho Chi Minh declared independence in front of a crowd of exhilarated Vietnamese.

What successful tactic did North Vietnam and the Viet Cong employ against the US? The Viet Cong and the North Vietnamese used guerilla warfare tactics against American troops. They also applied their knowledge of the region to advance the war. In addition, the Viet Cong armies developed underground structures to avoid air raids while sustaining their vital paths.
