SL Centre Name from Roll No.

Question: How can I find the name and address of an SL centre given my roll number?

Answer: To find the name and address of an SL centre using your roll number, follow these steps:

- Visit the official website of the State Level Public Service Commission (SLPSC) or the relevant examination authority.
- Locate the "Find SL Centre" section or similar.
- Enter your roll number in the designated field.
- Click on the "Search" or "Submit" button.

The website will display the following information:

- SL Centre Name: The name of the centre where your examination will be held.
- Address: The complete address of the SL centre, including district, state, and PIN code.

Example: If your roll number is 12345, you can visit the SLPSC website and enter it in the "Find SL Centre" field. The result will display the centre name as "XYZ Examination Centre" and the address as "ABC Street, DEF Colony, City, 123456."

Important Note: The availability of SL centre information may vary depending on the stage of the examination process and the specific examination authority. It is recommended to check the official website or contact the relevant authorities for the most up-to-date information.

Additional Information:

- SL centres are designated examination centres where applicants take written examinations conducted by SLPSC or other examination authorities.
- The allocation of SL centres is typically based on the applicant's preferences and the availability of centres in their preferred locations.
- Knowing the name and address of your SL centre is crucial for planning your travel and ensuring timely arrival for the examination.
