Shaun Tan's "The Arrival": A Graphic Novel Exploring the Migrant Experience

1. What is "The Arrival"?

"The Arrival" is a wordless graphic novel by Australian artist Shaun Tan, published in 2007. It tells the story of a man who arrives in an unfamiliar city, navigating the challenges of a new culture and language.

2. How does Tan depict the migrant experience?

Tan uses stunning artwork to evoke the disorientation and isolation that many migrants feel. He portrays the city as a labyrinthine and alienating environment, with towering buildings and crowded streets. The man's inability to communicate effectively adds to his sense of loneliness and vulnerability.

3. Why is the novel wordless?

By eliminating text, Tan forces readers to interpret the images and emotions directly. This allows for a more universal understanding of the migrant experience, regardless of one's linguistic background. It also highlights the communication barriers that migrants often face.

4. What messages does "The Arrival" convey?

"The Arrival" serves as a powerful reminder of the challenges and resilience of migrants. It encourages empathy and compassion for those who have left their homes in search of a better life. Tan also explores themes of hope, belonging, and the transformative power of human connection.

5. What impact has "The Arrival" had?

"The Arrival" has been widely acclaimed for its artistic brilliance and emotional depth. It has been translated into over 20 languages and has won numerous awards, including the Astrid Lindgren Memorial Award in 2011. The novel continues to be used in classrooms and exhibitions around the world to raise awareness about the migrant experience and foster dialogue on issues of immigration and integration.

Tikki Tembo, Arlene Mosel: A Tale of Ridiculous Names

Q: Who is Tikki Tembo? A: Tikki Tembo is a young African boy with a ridiculously long name: Tikki Tikki Tembo-no Sa Rembo-chari Bari Ruchi-pip Peri Pembo. The name is so long that even the author, Arlene Mosel, had to abbreviate it to "Tikki Tembo" in the title of her book.

Q: What is the story about? A: The story follows Tikki Tembo's adventures as he tries to find a wife. However, all the girls in his village refuse to marry him because they can't remember his name. Desperate, Tikki Tembo sets out on a journey to change his name to something shorter and more memorable.

Q: What happens on Tikki Tembo's journey? A: Along the way, Tikki Tembo encounters a series of strange and wonderful characters, including a talking elephant, a singing bird, and a magic tree. Each character helps Tikki Tembo on his quest, but none can change his name.

Q: How does Tikki Tembo finally get a shorter name? A: In the end, Tikki Tembo is helped by a wise old man who gives him a magic potion. The potion makes Tikki Tembo's name shorter and easier to remember. With his new name, Tikki Tembo is able to find a wife and live happily ever after.

Q: What is the moral of the story? A: The moral of the story is that it's important to be yourself, even if your name is long or difficult to pronounce. Tikki Tembo's journey teaches him that true happiness comes from accepting who you are, not from changing yourself to fit in.
