What kind of conditions are described when using estar? We use the verb estar in Spanish to express temporary situations. It could be a physical or emotional state, a temporary condition, or the location of someone or something. Let's take a look at these cases and some examples.

Is age ser or estar? Actually, you can use either ser or estar but they will be used in different contexts: El perro es viejo, you're simply describing one of your dog's intrinsic characteristics. Being old is part of what the dog is (at the moment at least). This is consistent with ser being used to describe "essential" features.

How do you say I am using the verb estar? Using Estar As An Auxiliary Verb For example, "I am eating" is Estoy comiendo – the present tense of the verb estar and the present participle of the verb comer.
