How do you cite Hamric and Hanson's advanced practice nursing?

What are the core competencies of Hamric's model of advanced practice nursing? Hamric's model of advanced nursing practice defines the scope and standards of practice to include seven core competencies: i) direct clinical practice, ii) guidance and coaching, iii) consultation, iv) leadership, v) evidence-based practice, vi) collaboration, and vii) ethical decision-making.

What are Hamric's three primary criteria for advanced nursing practice in chapter? Hamric's three primary criteria for the advanced practice nurse are graduate education, certification in a specialty and a focus on clinical practice with patients (Tracy et al. 2022). For an individual to become an advanced nurse practitioner, one needs to complete an NP focused graduate degree.
