How much is Grant Achatz at Alinea? Alinea now has three options when dining: The Salon ($210-$285/person) is a 10-14 course tasting menu on the second level of the restaurant. The Gallery ($305-$365/person) is a 16-18 course tasting menu on the main level.

What is the cost of a meal at Alinea? At $210 (some days $265) per person for dinner plus an additional $135 to $195 for the wine pairing, it's definitely a splurge, but Alinea makes a great spot for special occasions, birthdays and anniversaries.

How hard is it to get a table at Alinea? According to Forbes Travel Guide, seats book up quickly, and many diners don't sit down to eat until a few months after they've booked and paid for their spot. "Tickets are sold two months in advance, and usually they are released around the 15th of the month at 11 a.m.," the guide says.

Who is the current chef at Alinea? Chef Grant Achatz stands among the world's most celebrated and influential chefs, renowned for his innovative, emotional, and modernist cuisine.

Did Grant Achatz have surgery? Achatz underwent eight weeks of chemotherapy followed by six weeks of radiation and chemotherapy. The treatments were grueling, but effective in first shrinking the tumor and then destroying it. To ensure there was no microscopic disease left, Blair then performed surgery to remove the lymph nodes in his neck.

What made Grant Achatz famous? Grant Achatz (/ˈækʔts/ AK-its) (born April 25, 1974) is an American chef and restaurateur often recognized for his contributions to molecular gastronomy or progressive cuisine.

Who trained Grant Achatz? Innate curiosity and devotion to precision and control, traits he shares with his mentor Thomas Keller, have brought Grant Achatz from his parents' restaurant kitchen in Michigan to international attention and acclaim.

What is Grant Achatz doing now? Today, Achatz has a few more restaurants in Chicago and a medical team at the University of Chicago working to keep him healthy. “Five years ago, I was back in the same situation. Doctors at the University of Chicago are watching me like a hawk,” Achatz said.

What chef lost his smell and taste? When Justin Burke realized he'd lost his ability to taste or smell due to COVID-19, he thought his career was over. As a pastry chef, food writer and recipe developer in South Carolina, he's relied on those senses for over a decade in order to do his job.
