When We Collide: An Interview with Al Jackson

When We Collide is the debut novel by Al Jackson, a powerful and thought-provoking exploration of race, identity, and the complexities of human relationships. The novel follows the lives of two young men, one Black and one white, who collide in a tragic accident that upends their lives forever.

1. What inspired you to write When We Collide?

I was inspired by the rise of the Black Lives Matter movement and the ongoing racial tensions in our society. I wanted to explore the ways in which race shapes our experiences and influences our interactions with others.

2. What do you hope readers will take away from the novel?

I hope readers will come away with a deeper understanding of the complexities of race and identity. I also hope they will be challenged to think critically about their own beliefs and biases.

3. What are some of the challenges you faced while writing When We Collide?

One of the biggest challenges was finding the right balance between telling a compelling story and exploring important social issues. I also struggled with how to accurately and respectfully portray the experiences of people of color.

4. Why did you choose to focus on a tragic accident as the catalyst for the story?

I wanted to explore the idea of how a single event can have a profound impact on the lives of multiple people. I also believe that accidents can often reveal hidden truths about ourselves and our relationships.

5. What do you hope to accomplish with When We Collide?

I hope the novel will spark dialogue and encourage people to have difficult but necessary conversations about race. I also hope it will help to build bridges between people of different backgrounds.
