What did Coetzee win the Nobel Prize for? The 2003 Nobel Prize in Literature was awarded on Thursday, October 2, to South Africa's J.M. Coetzee. The author's themes, set against the backdrop of apartheid, are directed mainly at situations where moral distinctions, while clear, can be viewed to serve no end.

What is the significance of the title Age of Iron? The title is not about the Iron Age but iron represents the rough and brutal way of life Mrs Curren and the people in Cape Town live in. The first part where the term Age of Iron comes up is: Children of iron, I thought. Florence herself, too, not unlike iron.

Why did J. M. Coetzee move to Australia? IT is commonly believed that Coetzee's decision to leave South Africa for good in 2002 and settle in Australia was in direct reaction to the African National Congress's negative comments about Disgrace, which won the Booker Prize in 1999.

Is J.M. Coetzee a vegetarian? Coetzee's fiction has similarly engaged with animal cruelty and animal welfare, especially The Lives of Animals, Disgrace, Elizabeth Costello, and The Old Woman and the Cats. He is a vegetarian.

What does Coetzee mean in English? Alternatively, Coetzee may be an altered form of Dutch Kuzee, a habitation name recorded in the 16th century as Cudsee and Cutsee, from a toponym located in Zeeland, which may be interpreted as Cut's-see 'watercourse of Cudo'.

What ethnicity best describes the Coetzee family? Coetzee was born in Cape Town, South Africa, to parents of Afrikaner descent, though the family spoke English at home. He attended a Catholic school in a Cape Town suburb and then attended the University of Cape Town, where he received a bachelor's degree in mathematics and English in 1961.

Who won 3 Nobel Prizes? Switzerland-based International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC) is the only 3-time recipient of the Nobel Prize, being conferred with Peace Prize in 1917, 1944, and 1963. Further, the humanitarian institution's co-founder Henry Dunant won the first-ever Peace Prize in 1901.

Who was the black man who won the Nobel Prize? Ralph Bunche received the 1950 Nobel Peace Prize for his late 1940s work as a United Nations mediator in the Palestine conflict. He called himself 'an incurable optimist'. Bunche was the first African American and person of color to be so honored in the history of the prize.

What is the Apartheid in Age of Iron? Age of Iron takes place during Apartheid in South Africa. Apartheid was South Africa's government-enforced system of racial segregation, which systemically oppressed Black South Africans. The Apartheid regime disgusts the novel's white protagonist Mrs.

What is Age of Iron about? Age of Iron Summary. Age of Iron begins with Mrs. Curren learning of her terminal cancer diagnosis. This personal crisis is set against the broader crisis of Apartheid, which she has largely ignored in her life of academic privilege as a Classics professor.

What is the Iron Age famous for? Iron and steel tools particularly helped with agricultural development. Other major changes were occurring in the world during the Iron Age as well, such as more advanced art and agricultural practices, changing religious beliefs, and more advanced systems of writing using alphabetic characters.
