Is based on a true story always real? “Based on a true story” is more of an accurate accounting of the story, though there's probably some dramatic license taken.

What is the significance of the ending of the story? Your story's ending shows the reader what to feel as they leave your story world behind and return to the real one, what lessons to learn from and incorporate into their own lives, and what to expect from you, the author, as they wait impatiently for your next book.

What does the ending of the story signify? The dénouement often shows how the events of the story fit into the broader scheme of history or the lives of the main characters. For example, it might give the audience a sense of how the characters were changed by the story, and of what the future will hold for them.

What does Yun OK realize at the end of the story? Yun Ok learns from the hermit that to win her husband's love again, she must treat her husband the same way she treated the tiger. Yun Ok asks the hermit for a potion to give to her husband so he will be loving and gentle the way he used to be.

What happens at the end of the movie O? Iago and Hugo both take advantage of that flaw and plot Othello's and Odin's downfall. Being a realistic and violent film, “O” left me personally drained. The ending of the movie stands to be very abrupt as Odin just pulls out a gun out of nowhere and shoots everyone in a frenzy.

Why is the movie O rated R? This is an extreme film--lots of swearing, a disturbing sex scene and the killings at the end.

What is the point of the movie Rubber? Much like the opening monologue, explaining no reason, there is no reason to this film, and that's apparently the whole point. It's an homage to no reason. Absolutely nothing must make sense, and nothing must be explained.
