Who is Roberto in The Giver chapter 4? Answer and Explanation: In Lois Lowry's The Giver, Roberto is one of the elders in the House of the Old. At one point, Jonas helped feed him. Nevertheless, Roberto does not have a major role in the novel, and he is introduced to readers after he has died.

Where do Asher and Fiona spend their community hours? The next day, Jonas joins Asher and their friend Fiona at the House of the Old, where they do their volunteer hours.

What does release mean in The Giver chapter 4? Release is the term used when members of the Community (from the book The Giver) are sentenced to leave to Elsewhere (actually, sentenced to death by lethal injection). Most of the members believe that the people that are released leave the community for another place.

What prejudices are revealed in chapter 4 of The Giver? Final answer: Chapter 4 of 'The Giver' reveals prejudices related to ageism and conformity. The society values sameness, leading to a bias against the elderly and the non-conformists.

Who betrayed Jonas in The Giver? When Jonas finally understands that his father killed the newchild when he released it, we understand why he is horrified, feeling that his father has betrayed his trust. As readers, we feel along with Jonas that his community is cruel to condone the murder of children and the Old.

Who is Jonas crush in The Giver? Fiona is a classmate and love interest of Jonas, the main character in Lois Lowry's novel, The Giver.

Who does The Giver love? Among the members of the community, the Giver alone is capable of real love, an emotion he experiences with Rosemary, the first child who was designated to be the Receiver.

Who is The Giver's wife? At some point, the Giver presumably applied for a spouse and formed a parental unit with an assigned female, Rosemary. They both shared the trait of pale eyes. The Giver loved Rosemary as a true father due to his capacity of emotion, and she was later selected to be the next Receiver of Memory.

Did The Giver ever get married? Yes, the Giver is married, but he no longer interacts with his spouse. She lives with the other childless adults in their community.

What rule did Jonas break? Jonas broke three rules in Chapter 21. First, he stole his father's bike. Second, he stole food. Finally, he left his dwelling at night.

Does Fiona survive in The Giver? The rush of emotions take over the community and saves Fiona's life. The final scene sees Jonas giving voice over as he and Gabe are about to enter a house he previously saw in The Giver's memories.

What happens in CH 4 The Giver? Chapter 4 of The Giver focuses on Jonas and his friends Asher and Fiona as they do their last volunteer work before the Ceremony of Twelve. They volunteer at the House of the Old.

How old is Lily in The Giver? Lily is a Seven at the beginning of the novel, but she becomes an Eight at the Ceremony, at the same time that Jonas becomes a Twelve.

Why are Jonas and Larissa laughing at the end of Chapter 4 in The Giver?
Explanation: Larissa "chortled with laughter" and "hooted" at Jonas's words because his language and ideas were completely unfamiliar to her. In their society, emotions and individuality are suppressed, so Jonas's talk of feeling emotions and experiencing the world differently was amusing to Larissa.

Is Jonas's father evil? Jonas at the beginning of the novel does not think his father is evil, because he does not know what his job involved. After Jonas realized what his father's job involved he thought his father was evil, but his father is not evil.

Does Jonas marry Fiona? Lois Lowry I wish they hadn't made it feel certain that Jonas would go back, wouldbe with Fiona again. Yeah, that's romantic. But actually..in the books that follow...he does not go back; he meets and marries a wonderful woman..not Fiona.

Is there kissing in The Giver? Nudity and sexual activity The Giver has mild sexual activity, including when a young couple share a kiss. The girl is nervous and walks away after asking, 'What was that? ' The boy later dreams that he kisses her again after a wedding.

Does Kira marry Jonas? Kira is Jonas's wife and Annabelle and Matthew's mother. One of her legs is twisted, which is why she walks with a cane. Like Jonas, Kira has light blue eyes that mark her as having a gift. In her case, she can use her skill at embroidery and textile work to see the future.

Why is the word love inappropriate in The Giver? For example, the concept of "love" is meaningless to Jonas's parents. They are unable to comprehend the word or the emotion. Jonas, on the other hand, feels love very strongly, because he and The Giver are the only ones who can express or think about any strong emotions.

Is love Forbidden in The Giver? In our society we are allowed to love whoever we want and we are free to love. In Jonas's society love is a word that is prohibited no longer said for example abandoned no longer mentioned because they don't know what it means.

Does Jonas have a crush on Fiona? Fiona is Jonas's friend and the object of his first glimmering of sexual interest.
