What is John Proctor's allusion as he tells Hale? Proctor compares Reverend Hale to Pontius Pilate, the Roman leader who did not stop Jesus' crucifixion though he knew he was innocent. Similarly, Reverend Hale knows the trials are unfounded, but he does not speak out against them until it is too late.

What happens in The Crucible Act 2 Part 1? Proctor learns that four magistrates have been named to the General Court and the Deputy Governor of the Province is serving as the judge. The court has jailed fourteen people for witchcraft. Elizabeth tells Proctor that he must go to Salem and reveal that Abigail is a fake.

What three things does Hale question the proctors about? Several issues disturb Hale and make him suspicious of the Proctors. These include Proctor's poor church attendance, the fact that one of the Proctor children remains unbaptized, and Proctor's inability to recite all of the Ten Commandments.

What does Hale ask Goody Proctor to do? Reverend Hale asks Proctor to recite the Ten Commandments. He wants to see if Proctor is as faithful to the Puritans belief/way of life as he says he is (Hale is testing him, seeing if he really is a good Christian man, etc.).

What is the main conflict in Act 2 of The Crucible? In Act 2 of The Crucible, by Arthur Miller, accusations of witchcraft spread through the town of Salem. Townspeople accuse their neighbors of witchcraft with little or no evidence, and most of the Townspeople believe all the accusations are true.

Why is Act 2 Scene 2 important in The Crucible? Abigail's scheme becomes apparent to Elizabeth and Proctor within Scene 2. This is central to the play because, up until this point, only the audience knows what is really happening. Now two of the characters accurately interpret Abigail's actions and her overall objective.

Other important characters include Elizabeth Proctor, Reverend Parris, Reverend Hale, Rebecca Nurse, Ann Putnam, and Betty Parris.

What does John eventually reveal to Hale? In The Crucible, John Proctor tells the Reverend Hale that the girls' "sickness had naught to do with witchcraft." The Reverend Hale demands to know who told him this, and John reveals that Abigail Williams told him "they were discovered by Mr. Parris sporting in the woods ... were startled, and took sick."

Who is accused in Act 2 of The Crucible? Cheever spies the doll Mary Warren gave her. He finds a needle inside it. Cheever relates that Abigail had a fit at dinner in Parris's house that evening. Parris found a needle in her abdomen, and Abigail accused Elizabeth of witchcraft.

Why does Hale become suspicious of the proctors? He is suspicious of them because they do not regularly attend church in the village, they have not baptized their youngest son yet, and John Proctor cannot recite all of the Ten Commandments. According to Hale's books, witches are characterized by a distinct lack of biblical knowledge.

Why does Hale feel the need to visit and question the proctors? Answer and Explanation: In The Crucible, Reverend Hale visits the Proctors because Elizabeth is mentioned in court and he wants to find out more about those who are accused. When he arrives at the Proctors, Hale says he has business with them.

What are the differences between Proctor and Hale? During the course of the play John Hale goes from a confident and righteous man to preaching deceit rather than truth. John Proctor is a farmer in Salem, who is consumed by the guilt of his adultery. Initially, he is uncertain about his faith, but ultimately finds his goodness at the end of the play.

Why does Hale want John to confess? Parris, and Mr. Hale all try to get John Proctor to confess so that he can be spared the death penalty. Although he initially consents to confessing, John Proctor ends up tearing up his confession. Danforth has Proctor hanged.

The hysteria has been heightened by several confessions which seem to confirm the existence of an evil witchy plot.

Who gave Elizabeth the doll? Answer and Explanation: Mary gives Elizabeth a poppet, which is a small doll, that she made while she was sitting in court. This poppet is significant because Mary left behind the needle she was using inside the doll.

Which commandment does John forget? John is challenged to recite the Ten Commandments, which he does. However, he failed to mention the commandment "Thou shalt not commit adultery."

Why will Goody Osburn be hanged? Goody Osburn is being hanged because she refused to confess that she was a witch and that, when mumbling after Mary Warren turned her away for food or cider and claiming she was just speaking the commandments, she couldn't say any of them when asked to (which is a sign of witchcraft) and also made Mary Warren feel sick ...

Who pulls a needle out of Abigail's side? Cheever relates that Abigail had a fit at dinner in Parris's house that evening. Parris found a needle in her abdomen, and Abigail accused Elizabeth of witchcraft. Elizabeth brings Mary downstairs. Mary informs the inquisitors that she made the doll while in court and stuck the needle in it herself.

Does Hale lie in the crucible? Once he realizes that Abigail is a fraud, Hale devotes himself to attempting to persuade the other prisoners to confess so that they may avoid execution — using lies to foil lies. What he does not realize is that the lies he is urging would only reinforce the slanders the court has already committed.

Why hasn't John told the court what he knows Act 2? John hasn't told the court what he knows because he is reluctant to expose his affair with Abigail. Elizabeth attributes his silence to his fear of damaging his reputation.
