What does I carry your heart with me mean? To a native English speaker, there's something unusual about the phrase, "i carry your heart with me." In idiomatic English, it's more common to say, "I carry you in my heart." When one person carries another in their heart, it means they keep the thought of their beloved close so they can cherish them, even when apart ...

What type of poem is "Since feeling is first"? Like many of E. E. Cummings's best known poems (such as "i carry your heart with me(i carry it in" or "love is a place"), "since feeling is first" is a love poem. It prioritizes love and feeling over logic and uses naturalistic imagery to express its ideas.

How do you like your blue-eyed boy? When the speaker of the poem says, "what i want to know is / how do you like your blue-eyed boy / Mister Death," there is a sense of irony because the line reads as if it is a Country Western cowboy slogan from a film. However, in this case, the "blue-eyed boy" is the "defunct" cowboy, Buffalo Bill.

What is the deepest secret in "I carry your heart with me"? The Spirituality of Love The main idea expressed in these lines relates to "the deepest secret nobody knows," which links directly to "the wonder that's keeping the stars apart." The speaker is talking about some secret, cosmic force that helps maintain the order of universe.

What is the central idea of "I carry your heart with me"? What is the theme of the poem "i carry your heart with me (i carry it in)"? Two central themes of "i carry your heart with me (i carry it in)" are love and unity.

What is the irony in since feeling is first? A number of the points argued for in the poem exhibit a certain irony. Though the speaker seems to make a case in favor of feeling as opposed to thought, potentially negative words are associated with this theme, including "fool" ("wholly to be a fool") and the highly connotative "fate" ("kisses are a better fate").

What is the 1st poem? The oldest known "poems" are anonymous - such as the Rig Vedas of Hinduism, the Epic of Gilgamesh, and the Song of the Weaver by an unknown Egyptian of the Second Dynasty. The psalms and The Iliad are "attributed" to David and Homer, respectively - but painstaking scholarship has never given them exclusive credit.

What is the first love poem? The first written poem ever found was about one very complex emotion: love. Named The Love Song of Shu-Sin, it was discovered during excavations in the Mesopotamian region, in a search for evidence to corroborate the stories of the Old Testament.
