Trade Facilitation and Paperless Trade: Enhancing Trade Efficiency

Q: What is trade facilitation?

A: Trade facilitation encompasses measures aimed at simplifying and expediting the movement of goods, services, and people across borders. It involves harmonizing regulations, streamlining customs procedures, and implementing electronic platforms to reduce trade barriers and costs.

Q: How does paperless trade contribute to trade facilitation?

A: Paperless trade refers to the use of electronic documents and systems to eliminate the exchange of physical paper documents. This reduces the need for printing, mailing, and document storage, saving time, resources, and costs. It also increases transparency, efficiency, and security.

Q: What are the benefits of implementing paperless trade initiatives?

A: Benefits include faster customs clearance, reduced errors and fraud, enhanced data accessibility, improved collaboration among stakeholders, and reduced environmental impact. Paperless trade also supports compliance with international standards and fosters a competitive trading environment.

Q: What is the role of UNESCAP in promoting trade facilitation and paperless trade?

A: UNESCAP provides technical assistance and support to countries in the Asia-Pacific region to implement trade facilitation measures and digitalize trade processes. It promotes best practices, develops guidelines, and facilitates dialogue among policymakers and stakeholders.

Q: How can businesses and governments contribute to trade facilitation and paperless trade?

A: Businesses can adopt electronic systems, digitize supply chains, and invest in training to enhance trade efficiency. Governments can provide incentives, implement supporting regulations, and collaborate with other countries to harmonize trade procedures. By working together, stakeholders can create a seamless and efficient global trading environment.

Who is the publisher of literature an introduction to fiction poetry drama and writing?

When was literature an introduction to fiction poetry drama and writing published?

Who is the first writer in literature? The world's first known author is widely considered to be Enheduanna, a woman who lived in the 23rd century BCE in ancient Mesopotamia (approximately 2285-2250 BCE). Enheduanna is a remarkable figure: an ancient “triple threat”, she was a princess and a priestess as well as a writer and poet.

Which came first poetry or drama? Poetry came first, because poetry was a sung story. One singer, who told the story and the history and what all the characters said and did. Drama, plays, also had one singer, one character, who told “his” story (a sung poem) while a chorus danced and sang around him.

What was the first piece of literature ever written? The earliest surviving written literature is from ancient Mesopotamia. The Epic of Gilgamesh is often cited as the first great composition, although some shorter compositions have survived that are even earlier (notably the “Kesh Temple Hymn” and “The Instructions of Shuruppak”).

Which of these is the oldest genre of literature? Poetry. Poetry is often considered to be the oldest form of literature. Before writing was invented poetic forms were used to make stories easier to remember and recite.

Who was the first female poet? It was a woman. Not Sappho, who came 1,000 years later, but a high priestess and poet named Enheduanna of Mesopotamia. She was not only the world's first author, but she wrote in the first person about goddesses, priestesses, worshippers, mothers, workers, and rulers. She also wrote about sexual abuse.

Who is the oldest author ever? And roughly a millennium after cuneiform emerged, a priestess named Enheduanna began using this writing system in a new way. Her unique texts are the earliest known example of first-person writing, and she may be the first known writer to claim authorship of her work.

Who was the first female writer in history? Among the first known female writers is Enheduanna; she is also the earliest known poet ever recorded. She was the High Priestess of the goddess Inanna and the moon god Nanna (Sin). She lived in the Sumerian city-state of Ur over 4,200 years ago.
