Worksheet on Modal Verbs for Expressing Obligation

Introduction

Modal verbs are auxiliary verbs that express the speaker's attitude or advice regarding an action or event. One common use of modal verbs is to convey obligation or necessity. This worksheet explores five modal verbs used for this purpose: must, have to, should, ought to, and need to.

Must

- Definition: Indicates a strong obligation or compulsion.
- Example: "You must complete this assignment by Friday."
- Answer: Use "must" to express a strong obligation to do something.

Have to

- Definition: Similar to "must," but often implies an external force or requirement.
- Example: "I have to go to work today, even though I'm not feeling well."
- Answer: Use "have to" to show that something is necessary even if it's not desirable.

Should

- Definition: Expresses a recommendation or strong advice.
- Example: "You should study harder if you want to pass the exam."
- Answer: Use "should" to give advice or make a strong suggestion.

Ought to

- Definition: Similar to "should," but more formal and emphatic.
- Example: "You ought to consult a doctor if you're experiencing these symptoms."
- Answer: Use "ought to" to emphasize a recommendation or obligation.

Need to

- Definition: Expresses a present or future necessity or requirement.
- Example: "I need to get groceries before dinner."
- Answer: Use "need to" to convey that something is essential or necessary.

Conclusion

Modal verbs are essential for expressing obligation and necessity in English. By understanding the subtle differences between "must," "have to," "should," "ought to," and "need to," you can effectively convey your intentions and advice. This worksheet provides a foundation for using these modal verbs correctly in both spoken and written communication.
