The Last Song of Dusk: A Conversation with Siddharth Dhanvant Shanghvi

Siddharth Dhanvant Shanghvi's latest novel, "The Last Song of Dusk," has captivated readers with its intricate storytelling and poignant exploration of love, loss, and the passage of time. Here's a Q&A with the author himself, shedding light on the inspiration behind his latest masterpiece.

Q: What inspired you to write "The Last Song of Dusk"? *A: The seed of the story was planted during my travels through the ancient ruins of India, where I was struck by the ephemerality of our existence. The novel is a meditation on the love we lose, the cities we leave behind, and the memories that define us.

Q: The novel is set against the backdrop of pre-independence India. Why did you choose this particular time period? *A: Pre-independence India was a tumultuous and transformative era, a time of both great hope and heartbreak. It provided a fertile ground to explore the complexities of love, loyalty, and betrayal amidst the upheaval of societal change.

Q: The characters in "The Last Song of Dusk" are vividly portrayed. How did you develop these characters? *A: I draw inspiration from the people around me, the fleeting conversations I overhear, and the stories I read in old newspapers. By weaving together these elements, I create characters that feel both real and relatable.

Q: The novel touches on themes of love and loss. What do you hope readers will take away from the story? *A: I believe that love is the most powerful and transformative force in our lives. Even when love is lost, it leaves an imprint that shapes us forever. The novel is a reminder to cherish the love we have while it lasts.

Q: What was the most challenging aspect of writing "The Last Song of Dusk"? *A: Striking the balance between historical accuracy and emotional resonance was the most challenging part. I wanted to create a story that was both immersive and emotionally authentic. It took countless hours of research and meticulous revisions to achieve that equilibrium.
