Chapter 28: The American Revolution

This chapter explores the events leading up to and during the American Revolution, including the Stamp Act, the Boston Massacre, and the Declaration of Independence.

Paragraph 1:

- Question: What was the Stamp Act and why did it anger colonists?
- Answer: The Stamp Act was a tax imposed on all paper goods in the colonies. Colonists resented the tax because it was levied without their consent and violated their right to self-government.

Paragraph 2:

- Question: Describe the events that occurred on March 5, 1770, in Boston.
- Answer: The Boston Massacre occurred when British soldiers fired into a crowd of protesting colonists, killing five people. The incident further inflamed tensions between colonists and the British government.

Paragraph 3:

- Question: What was the purpose of the Declaration of Independence?
- Answer: The Declaration of Independence was a formal document that declared the American colonies' separation from British rule and asserted their right to independence.

Paragraph 4:

- Question: Identify the key principles and ideas expressed in the Declaration of Independence.
- Answer: The Declaration of Independence proclaimed that all men are created equal and endowed with certain unalienable rights, including life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. It also declared that governments derive their power from the consent of the governed.

Paragraph 5:

- Question: What were some of the challenges faced by the Continental Army during the American Revolution?
- Answer: The Continental Army faced numerous challenges, including a shortage of supplies, funding, and trained soldiers. Despite these obstacles, the American forces persevered and eventually achieved victory over the British.
