Smile Please KS1 SATS Mark Scheme

The KS1 SATs (Key Stage 1 Standard Assessment Tests) are taken by children in Year 2 in England. The tests cover a range of subjects, including reading, writing, and mathematics. The mark scheme for the writing test provides guidance to teachers on how to assess children's work.

Paragraph 1: Content and Organization

The mark scheme for the writing test assesses children's ability to write a story or a non-chronological report. The story should be about a specific event or experience, and the report should be about a non-fiction topic. Children are assessed on their ability to organize their writing, use appropriate vocabulary, and use correct grammar and punctuation.

Paragraph 2: Textual Features

The mark scheme also assesses children's use of textual features. These include things like paragraphs, headings, and subheadings. Children are assessed on their ability to use these features to organize their writing and make it more readable.

Paragraph 3: Sentence Structure and Vocabulary

The mark scheme assesses children's ability to write sentences that are clear and well-structured. Children are also assessed on their use of vocabulary, including their use of adjectives and adverbs.

Paragraph 4: Handwriting and Presentation

The mark scheme also assesses children's handwriting and presentation. Children are assessed on their ability to write legibly and to present their work neatly.

Paragraph 5: The Scoring Rubric

The scoring rubric for the writing test is a set of criteria that teachers use to assess children's work. The rubric includes a range of levels, from "Working Towards" to "Greater Depth." Children are assessed on their overall performance, as well as their performance in each of the specific areas outlined in the mark scheme.

By understanding the mark scheme, teachers can ensure that they are assessing children's work fairly and consistently. The mark scheme can also be used to help children improve their writing skills.
