Q: Why is the first 90 days so important? A: The first 90 days are a crucial period for new leaders to establish themselves, build relationships, and set the tone for their tenure. During this time, they need to quickly assess the situation, identify priorities, and take action.

Q: What are the key challenges that new leaders face? A: New leaders often encounter challenges such as:

- Establishing credibility and building relationships
- Understanding the organization's culture and politics
- Gaining trust and support from stakeholders
- Setting priorities and managing expectations
- Overcoming resistance to change

Q: What strategies can new leaders use to succeed? A: Watkins recommends a 9-step plan for success:

1. Accelerate your learning
2. Map the organization's power structure
3. Build your team
4. Secure early wins
5. Negotiate success
6. Build coalitions
7. Manage your boss
8. Stay grounded
9. Be decisive

Q: How can new leaders avoid common pitfalls? A: Watkins identifies several common mistakes that new leaders should avoid:

- Relying too heavily on charisma or personal connections
- Failing to build support from key stakeholders
- Setting unrealistic expectations
- Getting bogged down in details

- Ignoring the organization's culture

Q: What are some tips for new leaders to stay focused and on track? A:

Watkins suggests setting clear goals and priorities, creating a support system, and celebrating milestones along the way. He also emphasizes the importance of reflection and learning from both successes and failures.

By following these strategies and avoiding common pitfalls, new leaders can increase their chances of success during their first 90 days and beyond.
