What did Yossi eat in the jungle? Yossi Ghinsberg has eaten monkey meat. He has felt his body rotting away from hunger and thirst. He stole and ate eggs from nests. This was in 1981 when he was lost in the Amazon rain forest and survived without any rations or implements.

What is the story at the back of the book? Writers use the term “blurb” to describe the text on the back of the book. “Summary” and “synopsis” are also used but, in my experience, are used only in formal context (i.e., in a query letter or an article about writing.) FWIW, many authors write their own blurbs and for most of us, it is horrible!

Did Yossi hallucinate? Without a knife, tools, or any kind of survival training, Yossi must improvise shelter and forage to survive. He begins to give up hope after losing all sense of direction, wondering if he will survive the jungle. He is alone for at least two weeks, during which time he has several hallucinations regarding his past.

Why did Yossi put fire ants on himself? "I actually went and shook a tree and showered myself with them because my feet couldn't carry me anymore and I needed to stand," he says. "I showered myself with the fire ants and, on the waves of pain, I managed to get up and keep on going."

Ghinsberg is most known for his survival story in an uncharted part of the Bolivian Amazon jungle for three weeks in 1981.

What was in Yossis' head? After Yossi cuts the worm out of his head, for most of the rest of the movie the cut is no longer there.
