How do you write why you love someone?

How do you write about your love for someone? Good writing about love features the same virtues that define a good relationship: honesty, generosity, open-mindedness, curiosity, humor and self-deprecation. Bad writing about love suffers from the same flaws that define a bad relationship: dishonesty, withholding, defensiveness, blame, pettiness and egotism.

What is the reason if you love someone? No one can specifically answer why we fall in love. Compatibility, compassion, and similarities are a few reasons that contribute to our feelings of love for another person. Sometimes, there is no reason for falling in love with someone, and it just happens.
