The Business School for People Who Like Helping: An Interview with Robert T. Kiyosaki

Question: What inspired you to create the Rich Dad Business School?

Answer: I saw a need for a business school that teaches people how to help others while building wealth. Traditional business schools focus on profit maximization and shareholder value, but I believe that businesses can also be a force for good.

Question: What sets the Rich Dad Business School apart?

Answer: Our curriculum emphasizes social entrepreneurship, philanthropy, and impact investing. We teach students how to use their businesses to create positive change in the world. We also provide mentorship and networking opportunities to help students build successful businesses.

Question: Who is the ideal student for the Rich Dad Business School?

Answer: Our students are typically people who are passionate about making a difference in the world. They may have experience in social work, non-profit organizations, or sustainable business. They are also eager to learn about business principles and how to use them to fund their ventures.

Question: What can students expect to gain from the program?

Answer: Students will learn a comprehensive framework for building and scaling a socially responsible business. They will develop skills in finance, marketing, operations, and leadership. They will also have the opportunity to network with like-minded entrepreneurs and access exclusive resources.

Question: How can people get involved with the Rich Dad Business School?

Answer: We offer a variety of programs, including online courses, live events, and mentorship opportunities. Visit our website for more information and to apply.

What's Holding You Back? 30 Days to Having the Courage and Confidence to Do What You Want and Meet Whom You Want

Introduction: Embracing your aspirations and pursuing meaningful connections requires courage and confidence. However, many obstacles can hold us back from achieving our full potential. This 30-day guide will explore the common barriers and provide practical strategies to overcome them.

Questions and Answers:

1. Fear of Failure:

- Q: Why does fear of failure cripple us?
- A: Fear stems from a perceived lack of control and an anticipation of negative consequences.

2. Lack of Self-Belief:

- Q: How can we overcome negative self-talk and boost our confidence?
- A: Challenge negative thoughts, focus on your strengths, and surround yourself with supportive people.

3. Procrastination:

- Q: Why do we procrastinate even when we know it's harmful?
- A: Procrastination is a coping mechanism for anxiety or perfectionism. Break down tasks, set realistic deadlines, and reward yourself.

4. People-Pleasing:

- Q: How can we break free from the need to please others?
- A: Establish boundaries, prioritize your own needs, and learn to say "no" to things that don't serve you.

5. Limiting Beliefs:

- Q: How do limiting beliefs hold us back?
- A: Limiting beliefs are negative assumptions about ourselves. Identify and challenge these beliefs, replacing them with positive affirmations.

Conclusion: Overcoming the obstacles that hold us back requires self-awareness, determination, and a willingness to step outside our comfort zones. By addressing these common barriers, we can cultivate the courage and confidence to pursue our aspirations and create fulfilling connections. This 30-day guide provides a roadmap to empower you on this transformative journey.
