Special Handling in Air Cargo

Handling Codes

Handling codes are three-letter codes assigned by the International Air Transport Association (IATA) to indicate special requirements for handling cargo. These codes are used by airlines, ground handling agents, and shippers to ensure that cargo is handled safely and in accordance with specific requirements.

IATA Handling Codes

- PEF: Perishable cargo
- IMP (req): Import requirements
- EAP: Sensitive cargo (e.g., explosives, radioactive materials)
- EAW: Special requirements for animal transport

IATA Cargo Handling

IATA cargo handling regulations provide guidelines for the safe and efficient handling of air cargo. These regulations include requirements for packaging, labeling, documentation, and handling procedures.

Special Handling Codes

- EAP: Sensitive cargo
- EAW: Animal transport

- PEM: Perishable cargo

Other Codes

- IATA airline codes: Two-letter codes assigned to airlines (e.g., ECP for Eva Air)
- 3-letter code for airports: Three-letter codes assigned to airports (e.g., JFK for John F. Kennedy International Airport)
- FWB: Forwarder's airway bill
- PEM: Perishable cargo declaration
- FFM: Freight forwarder's manifest

IMSBC Code

The IMSBC Code (International Maritime Solid Bulk Cargoes Code) is a set of guidelines for the safe handling of solid bulk cargoes on ships.

7-digit IATA Code

The 7-digit IATA code is a unique identifier assigned to airlines by IATA. It includes the 2-letter airline code and a 5-digit numerical code.

Special Handling in Airports

Special handling refers to the additional care required for handling certain types of cargo, such as hazardous materials, live animals, or perishable goods. Airports have designated areas for handling special cargo, and trained personnel are responsible for ensuring that proper procedures are followed.

Special Service Codes

Special service codes are used to indicate additional services required for cargo handling, such as:

- SHC: Special handling instructions
- REQ: Import requirements
