James Baldwin's "The Fire Next Time" derives its title from a sermon by the black minister Samuel Proctor, who predicted that racial violence would engulf the United States, leading to a "fire next time." Baldwin uses this metaphor to symbolize the impending crisis of racial injustice and the danger of societal collapse if it remains unresolved.

2. What are Baldwin's main arguments in the book?

Baldwin argues that racism in America is a profound and systemic issue that has devastating consequences for both black and white Americans.
