Why I Am a Salafi

Salafism is a school of thought within Sunni Islam that emphasises the adherence to the teachings of the early Muslims, the Salaf. Salafis believe that the best way to understand and practice Islam is to follow the example of the Prophet Muhammad (?) and his companions.

What is Salafism?

Salafism is not a sect or a new religion. It is a revival of the original teachings of Islam as they were understood and practiced by the early Muslims. Salafis believe that the Qur'an and the Sunnah of the Prophet Muhammad (?) are the only sources of Islamic law and that all other sources, such as personal opinion or cultural traditions, are unreliable and should be rejected.

Why I am a Salafi

There are many reasons why I am a Salafi. First, I believe that Salafism is the most authentic and pure form of Islam. It is based on the teachings of the Prophet Muhammad (?) and his companions, and it rejects all innovations and bid'ahs that have crept into Islam over the centuries.

Second, I believe that Salafism is the most logical and rational form of Islam. It is based on a clear understanding of the Qur'an and the Sunnah, and it rejects all forms of superstition and blind faith.

Third, I believe that Salafism is the most practical and effective form of Islam. It provides clear guidance on how to live a good and fulfilling life in accordance with the teachings of the Prophet Muhammad (?).

Conclusion

Salafism is not a radical or extremist form of Islam. It is a peaceful and moderate school of thought that is based on the teachings of the Prophet Muhammad (?). Salafis believe that the best way to understand and practice Islam is to follow the example of the early Muslims, and they reject all innovations and bid'ahs that have crept into Islam over the centuries.
