The Garden, the Curtain, and the Cross

The Garden of Gethsemane, the curtain of the temple, and the cross of Calvary are three key symbols in the Christian faith. They represent the suffering, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ.

The Garden of Gethsemane

The Garden of Gethsemane was where Jesus went to pray the night before his crucifixion. It was there that he experienced great anguish and prayed, "My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass from me; nevertheless, not as I will, but as you will." (Matthew 26:39)

The Curtain of the Temple

The curtain of the temple separated the Holy of Holies from the rest of the temple. It was a thick, heavy curtain that was torn in two at the moment of Jesus' death. This symbolized the tearing down of the barrier between God and humanity.

The Cross of Calvary

The cross of Calvary is the symbol of Jesus' crucifixion. It was on the cross that Jesus died for the sins of the world. The cross is a reminder of Jesus' sacrifice and his victory over sin and death.
