Was Summer ever in love with Tom? It wasn't entirely Tom's fault for falling for Summer when she clearly showed signs of loving him as well. At least in my interpretation, Summer was very much confused with her feelings, and that confusion made her realize that they weren't good for each other.

Why did summer get married in 500 Days of Summer? Summer says she got married because she felt sure about her husband, something she wasn't with Tom. When Tom asserts that he was wrong about true love existing, she counters that he was actually right about it, he was just wrong about it being with her.

Is 500 Days of Summer based on a true story? The film is presented as a non-linear narrative. Each scene is introduced using a title card showing which of the 500 days it is. Co-writer of the film Scott Neustadter admitted the film was based on a real romance.

Why did summer not like Tom? Rather than parrot the same theme, I wanted to focus instead on Tom as a character, and suggest reasons why Summer ultimately lost interest in him: He was not actively pursuing his dreams, something that seemed to bother Summer and was not addressed until AFTER he dated her. His cynicism increased over time.

What does Tom realize in 500 Days of Summer? Narrator : As he listened, Tom began to realize that these stories weren't routinely told. These were stories one had to earn. He could feel the wall coming down. He wondered if anyone else had made it this far.
