Did the Father suffer on the cross? Yes, the Son alone suffered as the one who is afflicted by wicked humans and fallen powers. Yet, the Father suffered as the one who delivered his beloved Son up and the Spirit suffered as the one through whom Jesus offered up his Spirit (Heb 9:14).

Is Barnabas gospel true? Anachronisms and factual errors. The Gospel of Barnabas contains historic anachronisms, as well as geographical and other factual errors. According to the Raggs, they prove its medieval origins and the author's ignorance of first-century Judea.

Did God grieve when Jesus died? Because Jesus died, God no longer responds to his children's sin with anger. Rather, His Spirit grieves. God's grief is wrapped up in the death of his son. Yet, the Father, Son and Spirit know death is not the final chapter of the story.

Who was at the bottom of the cross when Jesus died? The gospel of John tells us who was at the foot of the cross when Jesus was crucified: "Standing by the cross of Jesus were his mother and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdala." (Jn 19:25). Of course, John was also present as this was when he was entrusted with Jesus' mother, Mary (Jn 19:27).

Why is patripassianism wrong? From the standpoint of the doctrine of the Trinity, with one divine being existing in three persons, patripassianism is considered heretical by some Christian churches since "it simply cannot make sense of the New Testament's teaching on the interpersonal relationship of Father, Son, and Spirit." In this, ...
