Standardized Testing for Michigan in 2024**

The Michigan Student Test of Educational Progress (M-STEP) is the standardized test required for Michigan students in 2024.

M-STEP Administration

- Grades that take the M-STEP: Grades 3-8 and 11
- Frequency of Summative Assessments: Annually at the end of the school year

Duration of M-STEP

- Grade 3-8: Approximately 2 hours 30 minutes per subject
- Grade 11: Approximately 3 hours per subject

Key Considerations

- End of Year Summative Assessment: M-STEP serves as the end-of-year summative assessment.
- Standard of Summative Assessment: M-STEP assesses students' proficiency in the Michigan academic standards.
- Consequences of Failing the M-STEP: Students who do not meet proficiency standards may require additional support and interventions.

- Opting Out of M-STEP Testing: Parents/guardians may opt out of M-STEP testing for religious or philosophical reasons.

Other Standardized Tests

- UMich Test: The University of Michigan (UMich) test is optional for 2025.
- SAT: Michigan does not require the SAT for 2024, but some colleges and universities may consider SAT scores as part of their admissions process.
- MEAP Test: Michigan has discontinued the Michigan Educational Assessment Program (MEAP) test as of 2015.

Additional Information

- M-STEP Results: Parents receive M-STEP results to track students' progress and identify areas for improvement.
- Importance of M-STEP: M-STEP results can help inform students, parents, and educators about students' academic strengths and weaknesses.
- Preparation for M-STEP: Students can prepare for M-STEP by reviewing state academic standards, practicing test-taking strategies, and utilizing online resources.
- UMich Admissions: While a 3.5 GPA may meet the minimum requirement for UMich, the average admitted GPA is typically higher. UMich considers multiple factors, including grades, test scores, extracurricular activities, and personal essays.
- SAT/ACT for Michigan State University: Michigan State University does not have a stated preference for SAT or ACT.
- SAT Testing in 2024: SAT testing is scheduled to continue in 2024.
