*Tabella A Annessa alla Legge 10 Agosto n. 648: Domande e Risposte

La tabella A, allegata alla Legge 10 Agosto n. 648, stabilisce la tassazione delle prestazioni di lavoro autonomo e delle attività professionali. Questa tabella è essenziale per determinare l'importo delle imposte dovute dai professionisti.

Qual è lo scopo della Tabella A?

La Tabella A fornisce una ripartizione degli importi forfettari che rappresentano le spese sostenute dai professionisti nell'esercizio della loro attività. Questi importi forfettari vengono sottratti dal reddito imponibile prima del calcolo delle imposte.

Quali professionisti sono tenuti a utilizzare la Tabella A?

La Tabella A è applicabile ai professionisti che non possiedono partita IVA o che non hanno optato per il regime contabile ordinario. Questi professionisti includono avvocati, medici, commercialisti, ingegneri e architetti.

In che modo la Tabella A viene utilizzata per calcolare le imposte?

Per calcolare le imposte dovute, il professionista deve prima determinare il proprio reddito imponibile. Questo viene fatto sottraendo dalla sua retributa lorda gli importi forfettari indicati nella Tabella A. L'imposta viene quindi calcolata applicando l'aliquota IRPEF corrispondente al reddito imponibile.

Esistono alternative all'utilizzo della Tabella A?

Sì, i professionisti possono optare per il regime contabile ordinario, che consente loro di dedurre le spese effettivamente sostenute. Tuttavia, questo richiede la tenuta di libri contabili e può essere più complesso da gestire rispetto all'utilizzo della Tabella A.

Qual è il vantaggio di utilizzare la Tabella A?

La Tabella A offre ai professionisti un modo semplice e conveniente per determinare le proprie imposte dovute. Elimina la necessità di tenere registri dettagliati delle spese e può potenzialmente ridurre l'importo delle imposte dovute.
