Nissan Murano SL: Technology and Performance**

The Nissan Murano SL is a premium trim level of the midsize SUV that offers an array of advanced features and a powerful engine.

Murano SL Technology Package

The Murano SL Technology Package includes a suite of cutting-edge technologies, such as:

- NissanConnect® with Navigation and Services: Provides real-time traffic updates, weather forecasts, and access to various apps.
- Bose® Premium Audio System: Delivers exceptional sound quality with 8 speakers and a subwoofer.
- Around View® Monitor: Offers a 360-degree view of surroundings for easy parking and maneuvering.

Difference Between 2006 Nissan Murano SE and SL

The 2006 Murano SL differs from the SE trim level in several ways:

- Leather-appointed seats and interior trim
- Power sunroof
- Bose® audio system
- 18-inch alloy wheels

- Bluetooth® connectivity

Engine in a 2006 Nissan Murano SL AWD

The 2006 Murano SL AWD is powered by a 3.5-liter V6 engine that generates 265 horsepower and 248 lb-ft of torque. It is paired with a continuously variable transmission (CVT).

Fuel Consumption of a 2006 Nissan Murano

The fuel consumption of a 2006 Murano SL with AWD is estimated at 18 mpg in the city and 23 mpg on the highway.

Reprogramming a 2006 Nissan Murano

Reprogramming a 2006 Murano requires specialized equipment and software. It is advisable to consult with a Nissan dealership or qualified mechanic.

Meaning of SL in Nissan

SL stands for "Sport Luxury" in Nissan's trim level nomenclature. It typically denotes a higher level of equipment, luxury features, and performance enhancements.

Reliability of 2006 Nissan Murano SL

The 2006 Murano SL has received mixed reviews in terms of reliability. Some owners have reported issues with transmission problems, electrical gremlins, and premature tire wear.

Common Problems with a 2006 Nissan Murano

Common problems reported by owners of the 2006 Murano include:

- Transmission slipping or shuddering
- Electrical system malfunctions
- Window regulator failures
- Premature brake wear

Is Nissan Murano SL Fuel Efficient?

Despite its powerful engine, the Murano SL offers decent fuel efficiency for its class. Its estimated 18/23 mpg city/highway rating is comparable to other midsize SUVs.

Features of Murano SL

In addition to the Technology Package, the Murano SL also features:

- Heated and power-adjustable front seats
- Climate-controlled front seats
- Auto-dimming rearview mirror
- Roof rails

Difference Between Murano SV and Murano SL

The Murano SV occupies a lower trim level than the SL. It lacks the SL's luxury features, such as leather seats, a sunroof, and a premium audio system. However, it offers additional value for buyers seeking a well-equipped SUV at a more affordable price.

What is the Difference Between a Murano SL and Platinum?

The Murano Platinum is the top-of-the-line trim level, surpassing the SL in terms of luxury and amenities. It adds features such as:

- Cooled front seats
- Heated rear seats
- Premium Bose® surround sound system
- Intelligent Around View® Monitor
