

Boko haram fundamentalism a critical metamorphosis

Download Complete File

What is the ideology of the Boko Haram? Boko Haram is an Islamist movement founded in 2002 by Yusuf Muhammad in Borno State of northeast Nigeria. Yusuf Muhammad's teaching propagated hatred toward Western civilization. It vehemently affirmed the infallibility of the Qur'an as the uncreated and eternal word of Allah.

What is Boko Haram fighting for? Boko Haram is a Salafi-jihadist group fighting for the replacement of the secular Nigerian state with an Islamic one based on a strict compliance to the Sharia law, throughout the country. It operates in the North East of Nigeria, exerting violence against westerners, Christians, and Muslims considered 'infidels'.

Is Boko Haram still active today? Nonetheless, Boko Haram remains resilient, conducting attacks in neighboring Cameroon, Chad, Niger, as well as Nigeria, emphasizing the threat it poses to Western and regional interests.

What does Boko Haram mean in English? The name Boko Haram is usually translated as "Western education is forbidden". "Haram" is from the Arabic ?????? (?ar?m, "forbidden") and the Hausa word boko (the first vowel is long, the second pronounced in a low tone), meaning "fake", which is used to refer to secular Western education.

What is the philosophy of Boko Haram? Boko Haram is an Islamic sect that believes northern politics has been seized by a group of corrupt, false Muslims. It wants to wage a war against them, and the Federal Republic of Nigeria generally, to create a "pure" Islamic state ruled by sharia law.

Does Boko Haram target Christians? Boko Haram continued to target Muslims, Christians, and traditionalist believers without apparent distinction, while ISIS-WA tended to target and attack military installations and other government property more than civilians.

Why do Boko Haram kidnap girls? Boko Haram has also been known to kidnap girls, whom it believes should not be educated, and use them as cooks or sex slaves. On 6 July 2013, armed men from Boko Haram attacked Government Secondary School in Mamudo, Yobe State, killing at least 42 people.

What is the difference between ISIS and Boko Haram? For ISIS, the focus is on the creation of a genuine Islamic state in preparation for Armageddon. In the case of Boko Haram, which has sworn “allegiance” to ISIS, it is the creation of God's kingdom through achievement of justice for the poor by the rigid implementation of sharia.

Who funds Boko Haram? Some funding clearly comes [PDF] from criminal activity, with kidnapping particularly lucrative, and from bank robberies. Presumably, protection rackets also play a role. At some times and in some places, Boko Haram has been able to impose “taxes” on the local population.

What is the aim of Boko Haram? This, in turn, was popularly interpreted as “Western education is a sin” or “Western education is forbidden.” Ideologically, Boko Haram is against Westernization, which it views as negatively impacting Islamic values.

What is Boko Haram most known for? Boko Haram frequently uses small arms to attack civilians and regional security forces. The group has conducted kidnappings to elicit ransoms and obtain medical services. Boko Haram has also used untrained kidnapping victims, including women and children, as suicide bombers.

How does Boko Haram affect society? Boko Haram fighters have slaughtered civilians in villages and towns, abducted thousands of people, forcibly marrying off women and girls to their fighters, and conducted mass-casualty terrorist attacks against mosques, markets, and camps for internally displaced persons (IDPs).

Is Boko Haram a humanitarian crisis? A violent insurgency, a prolonged humanitarian crisis. Children have been abducted, killed and used as suicide bombers. Villages have been attacked, and — if not burned to the ground — left stripped of all resources. Safe water, adequate health care and other basics are difficult to come by.
