Is The Breadwinner based on a true story? In the 1990s, author and activist Deborah Ellis travelled to Pakistan to help people in Afghan refugee camps. During that time, she began to interview and record the stories of women in the camps. These stories became the basis and inspiration for The Breadwinner series.

Is The Breadwinner a happy ending? But the ending was not a conventional ending. It wasn't a sad ending; it wasn't a happy ending. I guess it was an ambiguous ending. And even though it leaves me without a fully satisfying ending, the journey it took me on was fantastic!

Is The Breadwinner appropriate? The Breadwinner is an animated drama depicting the plight of an Afghan family. Based on the book by Deborah Ellis, the film provides lots of topics for discussion. While it is portrayed as a cartoon, the film is fully of heavy, confronting content that is not suitable for younger viewers.

Is The Breadwinner on Netflix? Available on Netflix, it boasts powerful storytelling with a young girl as the "hero" and demonstrates themes such as unflinching valiance, heroism, and victory in the wake of insurmountable odds. What happened to Parvana's brother? Hossain is Parvana's deceased older brother who died at age 14 when he stepped on a land mine. Parvana was still a toddler at the time, so she has no memory of him. He and Nooria were close, though, and Nooria shares that Hossain adored baby Parvana.

Is Parvana a real person? After first publishing the non-fiction book Women of the Afghan War, further inspiration struck and Ellis created the fictional story of an undaunted girl she named Parvana. "She's a girl who is not at all interested in being heroic or strong or brave or anything," Ellis said.

Do Parvana and Shauzia meet again? As a way to say good-bye to the Window Woman, Parvana plants flowers below her window; she swears she sees her wave. Before leaving, she says so long to Shauzia who is also heading out, and they plan to meet again in twenty years in front of the Eiffel Tower.

Does Parvana find her family? A crowd gathers around Parvana and Leila as the little girl dies before reaching the medical clinic, and a woman in the crowd cries out. Parvana recognizes the woman's voice as her mother's. Parvana is reunited with her mother and sisters, but she learns that her baby brother is dead.

How old is Parvana in The Breadwinner? Parvana is an 11-year-old girl who lives in Kabul, Afghanistan with her mother Fatana, her father Nurullah, her bossy older sister Nooria, her cheerful younger sister Maryam and her baby brother Ali.

Why is the kid rated R? Viewers will see intense violence against women, as well as lots of guns and shooting (including by the teen boy), blood spurts, dead bodies, and gore.

What age is The Breadwinner for? I highly recommend this movie as a literature at school. This movie should be age appropriate for the Middle School ages. This is not to be confused with the abysmal Breadwinners cartoon. It's a movie that features a very brave teenager.

Is The Breadwinner based off a true story? She grew up in the safe first-world country that is Canada and has only traveled to the countries she writes about. Even though The Breadwinner is inspired by a real-life mother and daughter, the novel itself has a far more imaginative plot.
