What are the 4 dimensions of instructional leadership? Murphy (1990) proposed four major dimensions of instructional leadership: 1) Developing mission and goals, 2) Managing the education production function, 3) Promoting an academic learning climate, and 4) Developing a supportive work environment.

What are the five elements of instructional leadership? Core elements of instructional leadership are: • defining shared expectations • resourcing strategically • managing the instructional program • promoting a positive school learning environment • developing leadership skills and knowledge.

What are the 4 basic leadership styles in education PDF? Online instructors voluntarily participated in a survey to indicate which of four leadership styles they use in their classes: transformational, situational, democratic, or authoritarian.

What are the three different approaches to instructional supervision? In order for a supervisor to work effectively with each teacher, the supervisor needs to be knowledgeable about differing approaches to instructional supervision. The various approaches to supervision can be grouped in three somewhat simplified models, categorized as nondirective, collaborative, and directive.

What are the six key instructional leadership practices?

What are the basic principles of instructional leadership?

What are the four basic responsibilities of instructional leadership? This brings us to the four basic responsibilities of instructional leadership: quality assurance (being able to honestly tell parents that their children are getting quality teaching of the right material in every classroom); feedback (regularly letting teachers know how they're doing, including appreciation, praise, ...

What are the 4 D's of leadership? Once you have given your subordinates the authority to carry out your vision, they must be held accountable for their success or failure. The Four D's of leadership - Decide, Direct, Delegate, and Disappear - should not be used as a formula for leadership, but they are a great start in building success as a leader.

Section 2 Reinforcement: Chemical Bonds

Question 1: Define a chemical bond and explain the four main types of chemical bonds.

Answer: A chemical bond is a force that holds atoms or ions together to create molecules or compounds. The four main types of chemical bonds are:

- Ionic bonds: Formed when one atom transfers electrons to another atom, creating oppositely charged ions.

- Covalent bonds: Formed when atoms share electrons in a covalent bond.
- Metallic bonds: Formed when metal atoms form a "sea" of electrons that holds the positively charged metal ions together.
- Hydrogen bonds: Weak forces formed when a hydrogen atom is bonded to a highly electronegative atom (e.g., oxygen, nitrogen, fluorine).

Question 2: Describe the relationship between electronegativity and bond type.

Answer: Electronegativity is the ability of an atom to attract electrons towards itself. The greater the difference in electronegativity between two atoms, the more polar the bond. In ionic bonds, one atom has a high electronegativity and takes electrons from the other atom, while in covalent bonds, the atoms have similar electronegativity and share electrons.

Question 3: Explain the concept of bond length and bond energy.

Answer: Bond length refers to the distance between the nuclei of two bonded atoms. Bond energy measures the strength of the bond between atoms. Generally, shorter bond lengths indicate stronger bonds, and bonds with higher bond energies are more difficult to break.

Question 4: Describe the hybridization of atomic orbitals in covalent bonds.

Answer: Hybridization is a process where atomic orbitals combine to form new orbitals with specific shapes and energy levels. In covalent bonds, atomic orbitals hybridize to form molecular orbitals that have different orientations and shapes than the original atomic orbitals. Common types of hybridization include sp, sp<sup>2</sup>, and sp<sup>3</sup>, which result in linear, trigonal planar, and tetrahedral molecular geometries, respectively.

Question 5: Discuss the properties and applications of different types of chemical bonds.

Answer: Ionic bonds produce compounds that are solids with high melting points. Covalent bonds produce compounds that can be solids, liquids, or gases, depending on their molecular weight. Metallic bonds result in solids with high electrical and thermal conductivity. Hydrogen bonds are important in biological systems, where they stabilize molecular structures and interactions.
