What is the lesson in Between Shades of Gray? The main theme of Between Shades of Gray, and the biggest lesson Lina must learn, is that even in the face of great suffering, brutality, and hate, love is the better choice. Sepetys is very deliberate in her framing of love as a choice one makes.

What are important things in Between Shades of Gray?

What are the trigger warnings for Between Shades of Gray?

What age is Between Shades of Gray appropriate for? Yes it's a good book and it is excellently written, but ??THIS BOOK IS NOT SUITABLE FOR SENSITIVE CHILDREN, OR KIDS UNDER THE AGE OF 16!!!! ?? This book has left a traumatic memory in my mind. Every night I was assigned to read the book, and I cried and I begged not to read it because it was so so heartbreaking.

What is the central idea of Between Shades of Gray? The main message of Between Shades of Gray is the power of resilience and hope in the face of adversity.

What is the main problem in Between Shades of Gray? Answer and Explanation: The conflict in Between Shades of Gray is that of the individual versus society. The above is because, in the story, the Soviet Union is about to instruct the communist government to reduce dissent in the Baltic countries annexed during the war of the time.

What is the purpose of the book Between Shades of Gray? Between Shades of Gray is partly based upon the stories Sepetys heard from survivors of Soviet repressions in the Baltic states during a visit to her relatives in Lithuania. Sepetys decided she needed to write a fiction novel rather than a non-fiction volume as a way of making it easier for survivors to talk to her.

What is the irony in the book Between Shades of Gray? Irony: It is irony that the NKVD officers were taking Jonas away as if he had done something wrong, but he wouldn't even hurt a bug and didn't deserve to be taken away.

What does gray symbolize in Between Shades of Gray? The color gray “Shades of gray” also refers to the grayness of the lives of those who have been deported. Lina's father's face is “gray” (60) the last time she sees him and the gray has “crept beneath [their] skin” (192), their food is gray, their homes are gray, their clothes are gray, and the sky is gray.

What did Jonas get sick with in Between Shades of Gray? The older man who told the group he was a lawyer comes to the shack and announces that Jonas has scurvy and needs vitamins. Elena rushes out of the shack to beg the other deportees for food for Jonas. Andrius comes to the shack and brings him a can of tomatoes and forces him to eat it.

What is the genocide in Between Shades of Gray? Between Shades of Gray is the story of the genocide of the Baltic people of Eastern Europe by the Soviet Union, one that is significantly less well known than the genocide of the Jews and other minorities in the Holocaust.

How is Kretzsky in Between Shades of Gray? A blonde NKVD soldier who seems to take pleasure in torturing Lina, Elena, and the other deportees. Under circumstances Lina does not fully understand, Elena manages to strike up a friendship with Kretzsky.

How old is Jonas in Between Shades of Gray? Ruta Sepetys's stunning debut novel begins on June 14, 1941, as the NKVD (the Soviet secret police) pound on the door of the Vilkas family's home. Fifteen-year-old Lina Vilkas, who narrates, and her 11-year-old brother, Jonas, race around the house when their mother tells them to fill just one suitcase.

What time period is Between Shades of Gray? Between Shades of Gray takes place in 1941, when Lina Vilkaite and her family are arrested by Soviet agents and taken to a Siberian labour camp. This was the experience of many Lithuanians, as well as people in other Baltic and Soviet states in the mid-20th century under Stalin.

Is Between Shades of Gray clean? Parents need to know that Between Shades of Gray is a story of horrific cruelty and violence for mature tweens and up.

What does the rock symbolize in Between Shades of Gray? The stone represents Lina's faith in her ability to get through her present afflictions, in order to live a better life in the future.

What is the sacrifice in between shades of gray? Lina can't help but find it unbearably unfair that her own family's kindness leads to their persecution, but Elena's mother teaches Lina and Jonas that it is their duty to help those around them to the best of their ability—even if it means sacrificing their own survival.

Why is between the shades of GREY worth reading? So, why does this book stand out? For one thing, the novel covers an aspect of history that we are rarely, if at all, exposed to in class: the Soviet rule of the Baltic states and the Siberian prison camps they established for dissenters.

What is the purpose of Between Shades of Gray? Between Shades of Grey takes place in the 1940s in Lithuania where it highlights the journey of a young girl as her life is torn to shreds by World War II. It demonstrates a part of the war that is seldom talked about.

What does the bald man do in Between Shades of Gray? Better known to Lina as “the bald man,” Mr. Stalas is a postman who is placed in the same train car as the Vilkasas when they are deported. He is an extremely pessimistic person, and throws himself from the train car in an attempt to commit suicide.

What is the trigger warning in Between Shades of Gray? Trigger & Content Warnings: Sexual assault. Forced sex work. Starvation.
