What is the first word of prayer? The first word of the Lord's Prayer in our English translation is “Our” (Matt. 6:9), but the first word in Greek is pater, father.

Do I pray to God or Jesus? Biblical prayer is ordinarily to be addressed to the Father, in the name of the Son, by the enabling power of the Holy Spirit. This scriptural pattern calls attention to the Trinitarian nature of redemption (Eph. 1:1–14) and underscores key aspects of the believer's relationship with God.

What is a good introduction for prayer? At the beginning of your prayer, take a little thanks to give praise and thanks to God. It might be for the gift of a new day, the experience of creation, family and friends. Whatever it is, offer this as a prayer from the heart. There are wonderful prayers in the scriptures that can help us enter into such prayer.

Do you say amen at the beginning of a prayer? But “Amen” is always said as the final word in a prayer, or sign of the cross. Evangelical Christians also say “Amen” as an affirmation or in response connecting to the word of God when preached.

What is a nice way to start a prayer? A good way to start is to address God by name. You could try “Dear God,” “Dear Heavenly Father,” “Our Father which art in heaven,” or simply “God.”

Do you have to say in Jesus' name when you pray? Invoking Jesus' name affirms that our prayers are rooted in Christ, but if we choose not to say it, it does not lessen our confidence that God listens. And Jesus, in Matthew 6:6, talks about the importance of praying sincerely, even if it's in private, without any fancy words.

What do you say instead of amen? “Amen” in Hebrew means “verily”. “Verily” and “truly” might be regarded as equivalents. Phrases that usually replace “amen” are “So it is” or “So be it”.

Should you say amen after every prayer? Should we say amen after a prayer? Yes! We have seen that this is scriptural; and if you agree with what has been said, then you are willing to make the words spoken in the prayer your words, saying, “so be it,” and mean it and that everything that was said was true, trustworthy and reliable.

What is a powerful prayer for Bible study? Lord, I need wisdom as I read your Word. You promise us in James 1:5 that we only have to ask for wisdom to receive it. Lord, please give me your wisdom now as I approach your word. Help me discern the truth of this text.

How do you lead a Bible study for prayer? Choose any passage you feel is appropriate. One way to do this is to read a psalm of praise as a group (e.g., Psalm 103, 145 or 150). You could also have people take turns reading specific verses and pause after each verse for prayer inspired by that piece of Scripture.
