What happened to Yoonbum at the end of Killing Stalking? As the scene fades to white, Yoon Bum can be seen running towards Sangwoo. This is abt rape, sexual assault, child abuse, murder and most importantly two individuals who are deeply damaged.

What mental illness does bum have in Killing Stalking? Yoonbum is a scrawny Korean boy with Borderline Personality Disorder (which, basically, means all of your relationships are incredibly toxic or unstable) who has a crush on a guy from his college, Sangwoo. Is Killing Stalking romantic? Despite the reputation the manhwa has gotten in the Yaoi fandom, Killing Stalking is, as stated by the Author, not a Romance. Can a 14 year old watch you people? A good movie for mature tweens It's a funny love story. Don't put too much more into it. I think this movie is perfectly fine for a more mature 12 year old, certainly 14 yo. There is a strip club scene, but all the dancers are clothed (underwear) and not much focus on the dancers.

Does Killing Stalking romanticize abuse? The visual language of the comic, which includes romantic instances of cuddling, hugging, and kissing before or after torture or killing, complicates this interpretation. Some fans view the relationship as a progressing romance, while others see it as a depiction of abuse and dysfunction.
