RV Ownership and Information**

Finding an RV Owner's Manual

Finding an RV owner's manual is crucial for understanding how to operate and maintain your vehicle. Here's how:

- Check the RV itself: Look in storage compartments, under seats, or in the glove box.
- Contact the RV manufacturer: Provide them with your RV's make and model to request a manual.
- Search online: Use search engines like Google or RV-specific forums to find digital copies.

Fleetwood Travel Trailers

Fleetwood Enterprises, founded in 1950, manufactured travel trailers under the Fleetwood name until 2009. The brand name has since been acquired by Thor Industries.

Determining RV Model and VIN Number

- Finding the model: Look for a sticker or plate on the RV's exterior that indicates the make, model, and serial number.
- Decoding the VIN number: The VIN is a unique identifier assigned to your RV. It includes information about the manufacturer, model year, and other details.

Fleetwood RV Problems and Reputation

Fleetwood RVs have had some reported problems, such as delamination, roof leaks, and faulty wiring. However, the brand is generally considered reputable and produces quality RVs.

Value and Identification

- Value: Use websites like NADA Guides or Kelley Blue Book to estimate the value of your travel trailer based on factors like age, condition, and features.
- Identifying with VIN: You can lookup your RV's VIN number on websites like VinDecoder.net to obtain information about the make, model, and year.

Additional RV Information

- Motor: Fleetwood RVs commonly use either Ford or Chevrolet motors.
- Models: Fleetwood offers various RV models, including fifth wheels, trailers, and motorhomes.
- Fleetwood and Coleman: Coleman and Fleetwood are separate companies that have been acquired by Thor Industries.
- Blue Book for RVs: Refer to websites like NADA Guides or Kelley Blue Book to find the blue book value of your RV.
- RV History: Use services like CARFAX to obtain a vehicle history report for your RV.
- Free VIN Lookup: Websites like VinDecoder.net allow you to check an RV VIN for free.
