The Doctrine of Knowledge: God's Sovereignty in All Things

By John M. Frame

Question 1: What is the doctrine of knowledge?

Answer: The doctrine of knowledge is a theological understanding of how we come to know the truth. It addresses questions such as: How do we know what we know? What is the source of our knowledge? How do we determine what is true and what is false?

Question 2: How does God's sovereignty relate to our knowledge?

Answer: God's sovereignty means that He is the ultimate source of all knowledge. He is the Creator and Sustainer of the universe, and therefore He has the authority to determine what is true. Our knowledge is dependent on God's revelation to us, whether through creation, Scripture, or conscience.

Question 3: Does human reason play a role in our knowledge?

Answer: Yes, human reason plays an important role in our knowledge. We use reason to understand the world around us, to evaluate evidence, and to draw conclusions. However, our reason is limited and imperfect, and it is only through God's revelation that we can come to a full understanding of the truth.

Question 4: How can we be confident in our knowledge?

Answer: Our confidence in our knowledge ultimately rests on God's faithfulness. He is a trustworthy Creator who has revealed Himself to us in a reliable way. By trusting in God, we can be assured that our knowledge is true and reliable, even though it is limited and imperfect.

Question 5: What implications does the doctrine of knowledge have for our lives?

Answer: The doctrine of knowledge has several implications for our lives. First, it teaches us that all truth is God's truth. We should seek knowledge with the goal of glorifying Him and understanding His creation. Second, it reminds us of our need to be humble in our knowledge. We should recognize that our understanding is limited and always open to correction. Third, it calls us to be faithful stewards of our knowledge. We should use it to serve God and others, and to build up the body of Christ.
