- Grade A-B (for subjects where the grading scale is A*-G)
- Grade 7 (for subjects where the grading scale is 1-9)

Is 1 or 9 better GCSE?

- Grade 9 is the highest grade attainable in GCSE 9-1, while grade 1 is the lowest.
- Therefore, grade 9 is significantly better than grade 1.

Is Edexcel or Cambridge better?

Both Edexcel and Cambridge GCSEs are widely recognized and accepted qualifications. The "better" option depends on individual preferences and the curriculum that best aligns with students' strengths.

What is the difference between GCSE 9 1 and IGCSE?

GCSE 9-1 is offered by Edexcel, while IGCSE (International General Certificate of Secondary Education) is offered by various examination boards, including Edexcel. IGCSEs are designed for international students and typically cover a broader curriculum.

Is IGCSE Edexcel maths harder than GCSE?

IGCSE Edexcel maths is generally considered to be more challenging than GCSE maths due to its broader curriculum and higher level of mathematics content.

What is the 9-1 GCSE result?

The 9-1 GCSE result refers to the student's final grade in a GCSE subject, which is represented using the 1-9 grading scale.

What is the 9 to 1 grading system?

The 9-1 grading system is a linear scale where each grade represents a specific level of achievement. Unlike the previous A*-G system, it does not have any overlap between grades.

What is a fail in GCSE 9-1?

A fail in GCSE 9-1 is represented by a grade U (unclassified). This indicates that the student has not met the minimum requirements for a pass.

What age is GCSE 9-1?

GCSE 9-1 exams are typically taken by students between the ages of 14 and 16 in the United Kingdom and other countries.
