They Cage the Animals at Night: SparkNotes

What is the main theme of "They Cage the Animals at Night"? "They Cage the Animals at Night" by Jennings Michael Burch explores the themes of identity, isolation, and the complexities of human nature. The story delves into the psychological struggles of the protagonist, Brian, as he grapples with his own identity and the preconceptions that others hold about him.

What are the main characters in "They Cage the Animals at Night"? The protagonist of the story is Brian, a high school senior who is facing pressure from his father to conform to societal norms. He forms an unexpected friendship with a classmate named Jennifer, who helps him to break out of his shell and embrace his true self. Other characters include Brian's father, a strict and demanding figure; and Jennifer's mother, a kind and understanding woman who supports Brian and Jennifer's friendship.

What is Brian's internal conflict in "They Cage the Animals at Night"? Brian grapples with an internal conflict throughout the story. He is torn between his desire to be his true self and the expectations that society places on him. Brian feels pressured to conform to his father's wishes and become a successful businessman, but he also longs to express his artistic side and explore his own interests.

What is the significance of the title "They Cage the Animals at Night"? The title of the story refers to the practice of caging animals at night. This metaphor represents the way in which society often confines individuals and restricts their individuality. Brian feels caged in by the expectations of others, which prevent him from fully expressing his true self.

How does the story end? The story ends with Brian and Jennifer parting ways as they go off to college. Brian reflects on the transformative journey he has experienced over the course of the year, and he embraces his individuality and the freedom to be his true self. He realizes that true freedom lies in breaking free from societal cages and living authentically.
