What is the south side a portrait of Chicago and American segregation about?

Moore examines the myriad ways in which the lives of African-Americans in the Chicago region are limited, constrained, stifled and lessened by segregation. She focuses on her home territory of the city's South Side where she grew up, went to school and now lives, but her analysis fits the West Side as well.

What is the summary of our America? “Our America” is a call to the people of Latin America to unite, recognize the diversity of their rich culture on its own merits, and guard against the imperialism of the United States. The rhetoric of the text accomplishes this goal by engaging the reader's active interpretation of metaphor and imagery.

What was life like in South Side Chicago in the 1950s? Existence in Chicago's South Side in the 1950's was harsh. Discriminatory housing policies meant that the majority of African American families lived like the Youngers, in kitchenette apartments – larger apartments were broken up into several smaller homes, with a very small kitchen and one bedroom.

Why is South Side of Chicago famous? Despite what you might assume from media portrayals, Chicago's Southside comprises a large, vibrant swath of the city and includes historic sites, cultural institutions, parks, and lots of restaurants and shops.

What is the main idea of America? Our citizenship is based on an idea we call America. America evolved out of the principles of the eighteenth-century Enlightenment, suggesting that individuals could govern themselves and that people were “endowed” with “unalienable rights” such as life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness.

What was the south side of Chicago in 1920? The 1920s witnessed the development of what is often called the Black Metropolis, or Bronzeville. Centering on the intersections of 35th and State Streets and 47th Street and Grand Boulevard (King Drive), Bronzeville developed as an institutional, social, cultural, and economic center of black urban life.

What is considered the south side of Chicago? The South Side of Chicago was originally defined as all of the city south of the main branch of the Chicago River, but it now excludes the Loop. The South Side has a varied ethnic composition and a great variety of income levels and other demographic measures.

What were two reasons that Chicago became a major destination for black Southerners? To Southern blacks, Chicago was the "Promised Land." Stories of big city life — jobs with good wages, homes with running water, and basic freedoms denied to blacks in the South — made the Northern city a prime destination for blacks coming from below the Mason-Dixon line.

What was the great migration of the South Side Chicago? Great Migration. The Great Migration, a long-term movement of African Americans from the South to the urban North, transformed Chicago and other northern cities between 1916 and 1970. Chicago attracted slightly more than 500,000 of the approximately 7 million African Americans who left the South during these decades.
