What does the Bible say about drawing pictures? The specific command you're referencing is the second commandment, from Exodus 20. It says not to make likenesses of things in heaven or earth for the purpose of worshipping them. The point is to forbid idolatry.

What book in the Bible can we read that humans are created in the image and likeness of God? The term has its roots in Genesis 1:27, wherein "God created man in his own image. . ." This scriptural passage does not mean that God is in human form, but rather, that humans are in the image of God in their moral, spiritual, and intellectual nature.

Why are we not supposed to make images of God? Sinai at the time the Ten Commandments were given, they saw no shape or form and this is stated as a reason why any physical representation of the divine is prohibited – no idols of humans, animals, or heavenly bodies were to be made.

What does the Bible say about photography? The Bible tells us that everything we do should be for the glory of God, and this applies to photography. Without God we can do nothing. (John 15:5.) He is the One who created everything that we will ever take a picture of, and the One who gave us the creative ability to showcase His work well.

Is there any proof of the Bible being real? We have more manuscripts of the Bible than any other ancient text, and it's not even close. You can look at 2,000-year-old copies of Old Testament passages found near the Dead Sea in 1947 (the famed Dead Sea Scrolls) and your ESV Bible from Mardels, and they say the exact same thing.

What proves the Bible is historically accurate? As the Hebrew Bible progresses through its historical narratives, more and more archaeological evidence can be used to verify or disprove its narratives. For example, archaeological discoveries verified the existence of the Hittite Empire, which is mentioned in the Hebrew Bible.

What percentage of the Bible is accurate? This is evidence of how accurate the copying process was. Using the science of textual criticism, we know for certain about 99.5 percent of the original contents of the Bible in the original languages, and in the other 0.5 percent we know what the all the options are.

What does the Bible say about selfies? Philippians 2:3-4 (ESV): "Do nothing from selfish ambition or conceit, but in humility count others more significant than yourselves.
