Social Change at Walden University

Vision of Social Change

Walden University envisions a society that promotes justice, equity, diversity, and inclusion for all.

Vision Statement

"Walden University empowers its students to effect positive social change and create a more just, equitable, and sustainable world."

Goal of Social Change

The ultimate goal of social change is to improve the well-being of individuals and communities by addressing systemic issues and creating a more just and equitable society.

Learnings about Social Change as a Social Issue

Social change is a complex and multifaceted process that involves:

- The interplay between individual actions and societal structures
- The influence of power dynamics and social identities
- The need for collaboration and collective action

Goal of the Social Change Model

Walden's social change model aims to equip students with the knowledge, skills, and values to:

- Analyze social problems and their root causes
- Develop and implement evidence-based solutions
- Advocate effectively for social justice

Key Points of Social Change

- Incremental vs. Radical Change: Social change can occur gradually or abruptly, depending on the nature of the issue.
- Top-Down vs. Bottom-Up Change: Change can be initiated from above (government, corporations) or from the grassroots (communities, individuals).
- Planned vs. Unplanned Change: Some changes are intentional and planned, while others are spontaneous and unexpected.

Walden's Goal and University Vision Statement

Walden's goal of social change aligns with its vision statement, which emphasizes:

- Empowerment of students as change agents
- Commitment to social responsibility and equity
- Goal of creating a more just, equitable, and sustainable world

DEI Statement

Walden University's DEI (Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion) statement reflects its commitment to fostering an inclusive environment where all individuals are valued and respected regardless of their race, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, disability, or socioeconomic status.

Conclusion

Social change is essential for progress and the well-being of society. Walden University empowers its students to be leaders in driving positive change and creating a more just, equitable, and sustainable world.
