Trump Officially Recognizes Jerusalem as Israel's Capital

On December 6, 2017, President Donald Trump officially recognized Jerusalem as the capital of Israel. This decision reversed decades of U.S. policy and has sparked both praise and criticism from around the world.

Q: Why did Trump recognize Jerusalem as Israel's capital? A: Trump stated that he made the decision to fulfill a campaign promise and to promote peace in the Middle East. He believes that recognizing Jerusalem as Israel's capital will help to move the peace process forward.

Q: What was the previous U.S. policy on Jerusalem? A: Since 1967, the U.S. has maintained a policy of "strategic ambiguity" on the status of Jerusalem. This means that the U.S. did not formally recognize Jerusalem as the capital of either Israel or Palestine.

Q: What is the international reaction to Trump's decision? A: Trump's decision has been met with mixed reactions from the international community. Some countries, such as the UK and France, have expressed concern about the potential impact on the peace process. Others, such as Saudi Arabia and the United Arab Emirates, have welcomed the decision.

Q: What are the potential consequences of Trump's decision? A: The decision to recognize Jerusalem as Israel's capital has the potential to destabilize the already fragile peace process in the Middle East. It could also lead to increased violence and conflict in the region.

Q: What are the next steps in the peace process? A: Trump's decision has thrown the peace process into further turmoil. It is unclear what will happen next, but it is clear that the decision has made reaching a lasting peace agreement between Israel and Palestine more difficult.
