How to write multiple authors in APA 6th edition? The surname and initial(s) of all the authors should appear in the full reference for the source. Use commas to separate the authors and an ampersand before the last one. The rest of the reference should follow the usual style for the type of source you are citing.

How to do APA if there are multiple authors? Multiple authors: APA contains special space-saving rules for sources with many authors. As of the 7th edition of the APA Handbook, citation rules change at 3 or more authors. For all in-text citations with more than 2 authors, utilize “et al.” after the first listed author to conserve space.

How do you cite multiple sources in APA 6? This page reflects guidance from the sixth edition of the Publication Manual. Order the citations of two or more works by different authors within the same parentheses alphabetically in the same order in which they appear in the reference list (including citations that would otherwise shorten to et al.).

How do you cite 5 authors in APA? Book with Three to Five Authors or Editors
NOTE: The in-text citation for works with three or more authors is shortened to the first author's name followed by et al. and the year. References: Author Surname, First Initial.

What is the APA 6th edition format? The most important APA format guidelines in the 6th edition are: Use 12 pt Times New Roman. Set 1 inch page margins. Apply double line spacing. Insert a running head on every page.

Do you have to say et al every time? In APA 7, for a work with three or more authors, list the first author and “et al.” for all citations, including the first citation, unless doing so would create ambiguity.

How do you verbally cite multiple authors in APA? If you are referring to a work written by multiple authors, always mention both authors if there are only two. If there are more than two, mention the first author and refer to the others as "and associates" or "and colleagues" or "and co-writers". You can refer to them as "et al." in subsequent mentions if you wish.

How to cite multiple sources in text APA?

How do you cite 8 authors in APA? More Than Seven Authors List by last names and initials; commas separate author names. After the sixth author's name, use an ellipsis in place of the author names. Then provide the final author name.

How to in text cite multiple authors? For all sources with three to twenty authors, include all of the authors on your References page. For in-text citations, sources with three or more authors can be abbreviated to only the first author's last name followed by "et al." For example, (Author et al., Year).

How do you cite secondary sources in APA 6th edition? Name the original source in the text of your paper, and cite the secondary source in parentheses: "Wallace argues that.... (as cited in Smith, 2009)." In this example, only the Smith source would be included in the reference list. Only include sources that you consulted directly in your reference list.

How to cite in APA example? APA in-text citation style uses the author's last name and the year of publication, for example: (Field, 2005). For direct quotations, include the page number as well, for example: (Field, 2005, p. 14).

How to cite 4 authors in APA 6th edition? APA Citation Style Guide (6th Ed.): 3 - 5 Authors authors/editors includes all of the names of the authors/editors, subsequent citations include only the first author's/editor's surname, followed by et al. and the year.

How do you reference APA with multiple authors? Here's how it works: Only include the first author's last name, followed by "et al.", a comma and the year of publication, for example (Taylor et al., 2018). When should I include a page number in an APA in-text citation? Always include page numbers in the APA in-text citation when quoting a source.

Which of the following citation styles is appropriate for multiple authors as per APA 6th edition? Table 6.1: In in-text citations of sources with three to five authors, list all authors the first time, then use et al. after that; for sources with six or more authors, use et al. for all citations. 8.17 (Table 8.1): In in-text citations, use et al.

Is there a difference between APA 6th and 7th edition? In APA 6, when a reference had more than seven authors, only the first seven authors were listed in the references list, followed by et al. In APA 7, list all authors up to 20. When citing a resource, do not include the publisher's city or state. Merriam, S.B. & Grenier, R.S. (2019).

Is APA 6th edition still used? Published on October 11, 2019 by Raimo Streefkerk. Revised on April 16, 2024. In October 2019, the American Psychological Association (APA) introduced the 7th edition of the APA Publication Manual, which replaces the 6th edition published in 2009.

How to make APA 6th edition format in Word?

What is et al in APA 6th edition? Use “et al.” to shorten in-text citations of sources with 6+ authors (first in-text citations) and 3+ authors (subsequent in-text citations), for example: (Taylor et al., 2019).

Do you put a comma after et al. APA? The abbreviation “et al.” (meaning “and others”) is used to shorten APA in-text citations with three or more authors. Here's how it works: Only include the first author's last name, followed by “et al.”, a comma and the year of publication, for example (Taylor et al., 2018).

How to cite 5 authors in APA? A Work by Three to Five Authors: List all the authors in the signal phrase or in parentheses the first time you cite the source. Use the word "and" between the authors' names within the text and use the ampersand in parentheses.

How to cite two sources in one sentence in APA 7?

How do you cite an author multiple times in APA? When citing the work of the same author multiple times in one paragraph, you do not need to reference the author at the end of each sentence. That would look clunky and make your writing stilted. Instead, introduce the author with a full in-text citation at the beginning of the paragraph and then, again, at the end.

Which of the following citation styles is appropriate for multiple authors as per APA 6th edition? Table 6.1: In in-text citations of sources with three to five authors, list all authors the first time, then use et al. after that; for sources with six or more authors, use et al. for all citations. 8.17 (Table 8.1): In in-text citations, use et al.
